

CULVER CITY STATION

Words & Music by Cali Rose in 2016

KEY: C
4/4 TIME
ROCK GROOVE

Starting Note:

(or) 4

Mute Strum

INTRO: C /// Whoo-Whoo! (Spoken) /// C /// Whoo-Whoo! (Spoken) ///

CHORUS 1: Welcome my friends to the Culver City Station on the Expo Line, and you're right on time. We're glad you are here at the Culver City Station. There's so much to do just-a waitin' for you.

VERSE 1: Let's go downtown to check out the scene. Movies, theatre, del-icious cuisine.

Old school, new school, whole lotta real cool and the people watching is a dream. There're studios, rainbows, Jeopardy. And lots to see at Helm's Bakery.

The Farmers' Market. We got Target and "The Heart of Screenland" History.

Whoo-Whoo! (Spoken) Whoo-Whoo! (Spoken) We got

VERSE 2: high tech, low tech, trees and shade. The Culver Hotel where the Munchkins stayed.

Wheel of Fortune. Wow! I'm wanna buy a vowel. Art shows, car shows. Oh what a day. Let's go hiking up the Overlook. The view is the best. Round the bend on Jefferson is NPR West.

And ev'ry summer, there's nothin' funner than Fiesta La Ballona. It's the partiest! So

CHORUS 2 & END: choo-choo right in to the Culver City Station. You get your own lane on the Expo Train. We are five point one square miles of FABU-LOSI-TY! And that's the nitty-gritty, Culver City is the place to be. One more time! (Spoken)

Sittin' pretty, the city for you and me! Whoo-Whoo! (Spoken)

Copyright © 2016 Cali Rose -- All Rights Reserved